The Beat of the Neighborhood

From spring through winter, Westend's calendar is filled with events that bring neighbors and visitors together in joyful ways. Seasonal street fairs transform the sidewalks into open-air markets, showcasing everything from handmade crafts and local art to gourmet treats and vintage finds. These lively days are filled with music, food, and the kind of spontaneous encounters that make city life feel personal.

Families flock to our popular summer movie nights, while music lovers enjoy curated live performances in the park. During fall, harvest markets highlight local makers and food vendors, and come December, Westend lights up with festive window displays, holiday pop-ups, and carolers weaving through the streets.

These events are invitations to pause, connect, and experience the joy of community in motion.

The neighborhood comes to life with a full calendar of engaging events!
